An aerial photograph of Northampton High School. The school building is a large, multi-story structure with a flat roof and several windows. In front of the building is a large parking lot filled with cars. To the right of the parking lot is a baseball field. The entire scene is captured from a high angle, looking down at the school grounds.

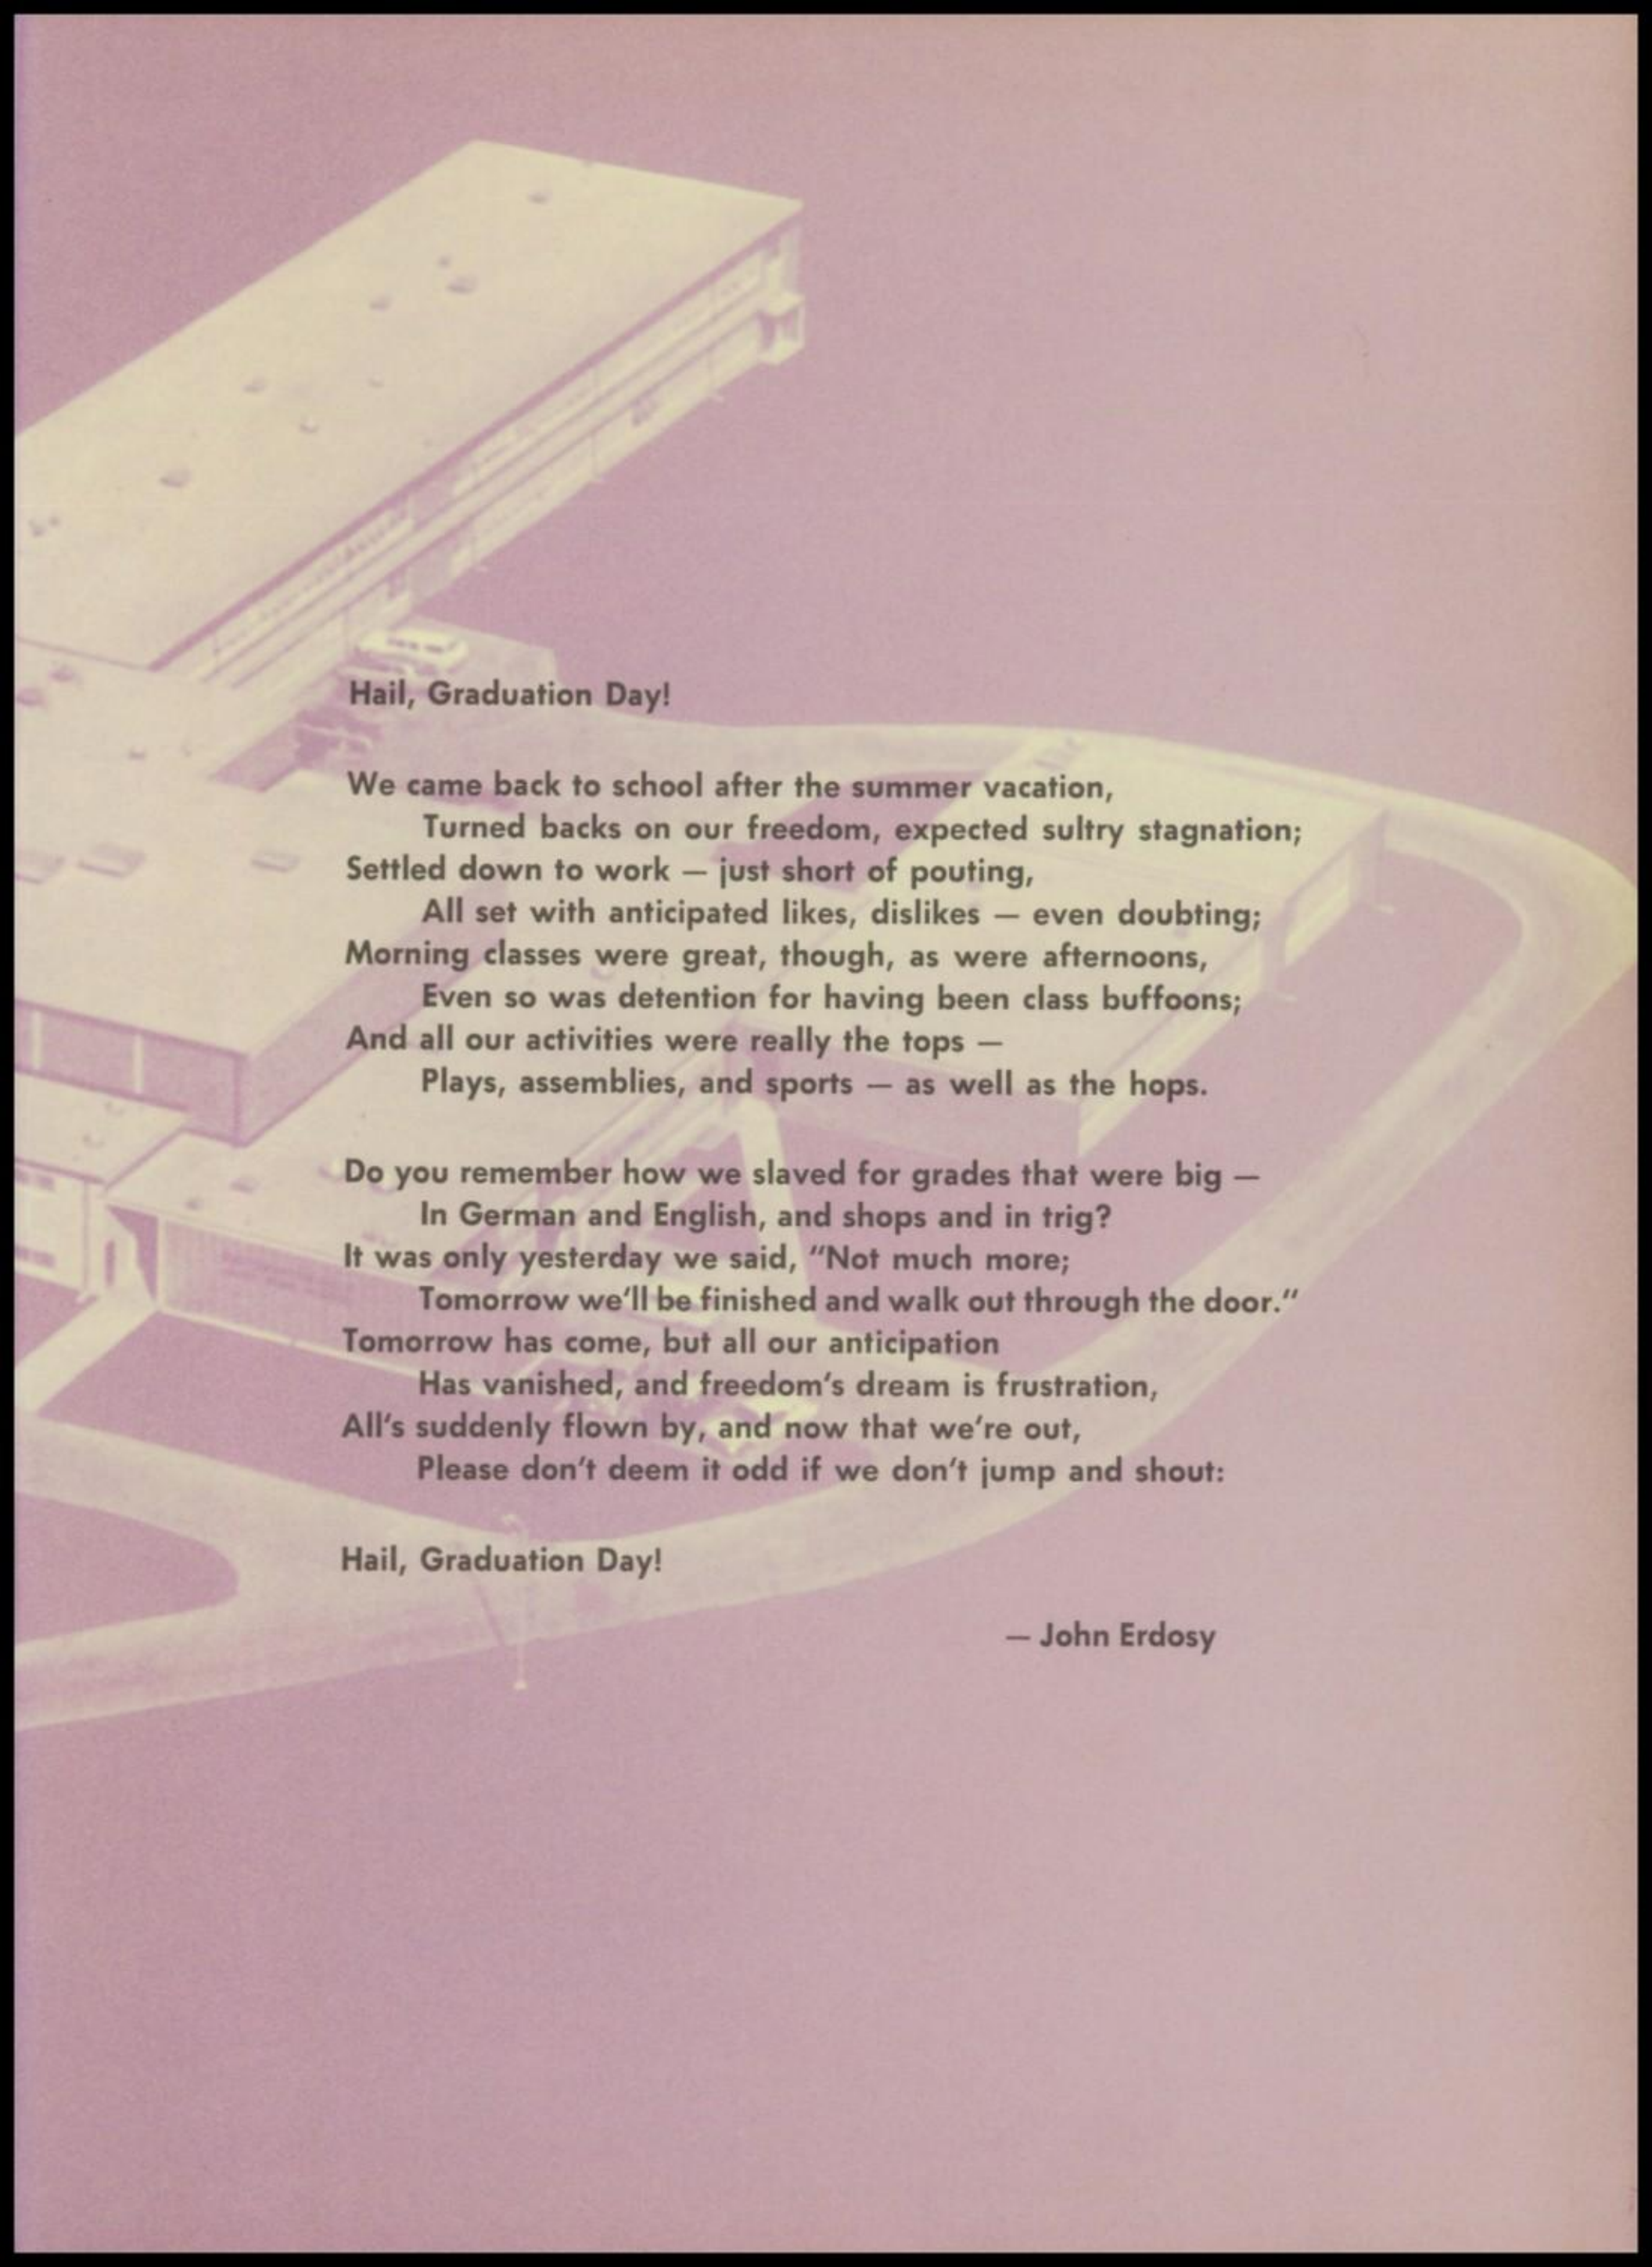

ALMA MATER

Honor to the Black and Orange!
Sing the glad refrain,
Loyal to our Alma Mater,
Ever we'll remain.

Days with her we'll e'er remember,
Though our lives be long,
Here's to her whose name we'll ever
Cherish in our song.

Refrain:

Alma Mater! Alma Mater!
All our vows renew.
Hail to thee, Northampton High School
We will all be true.

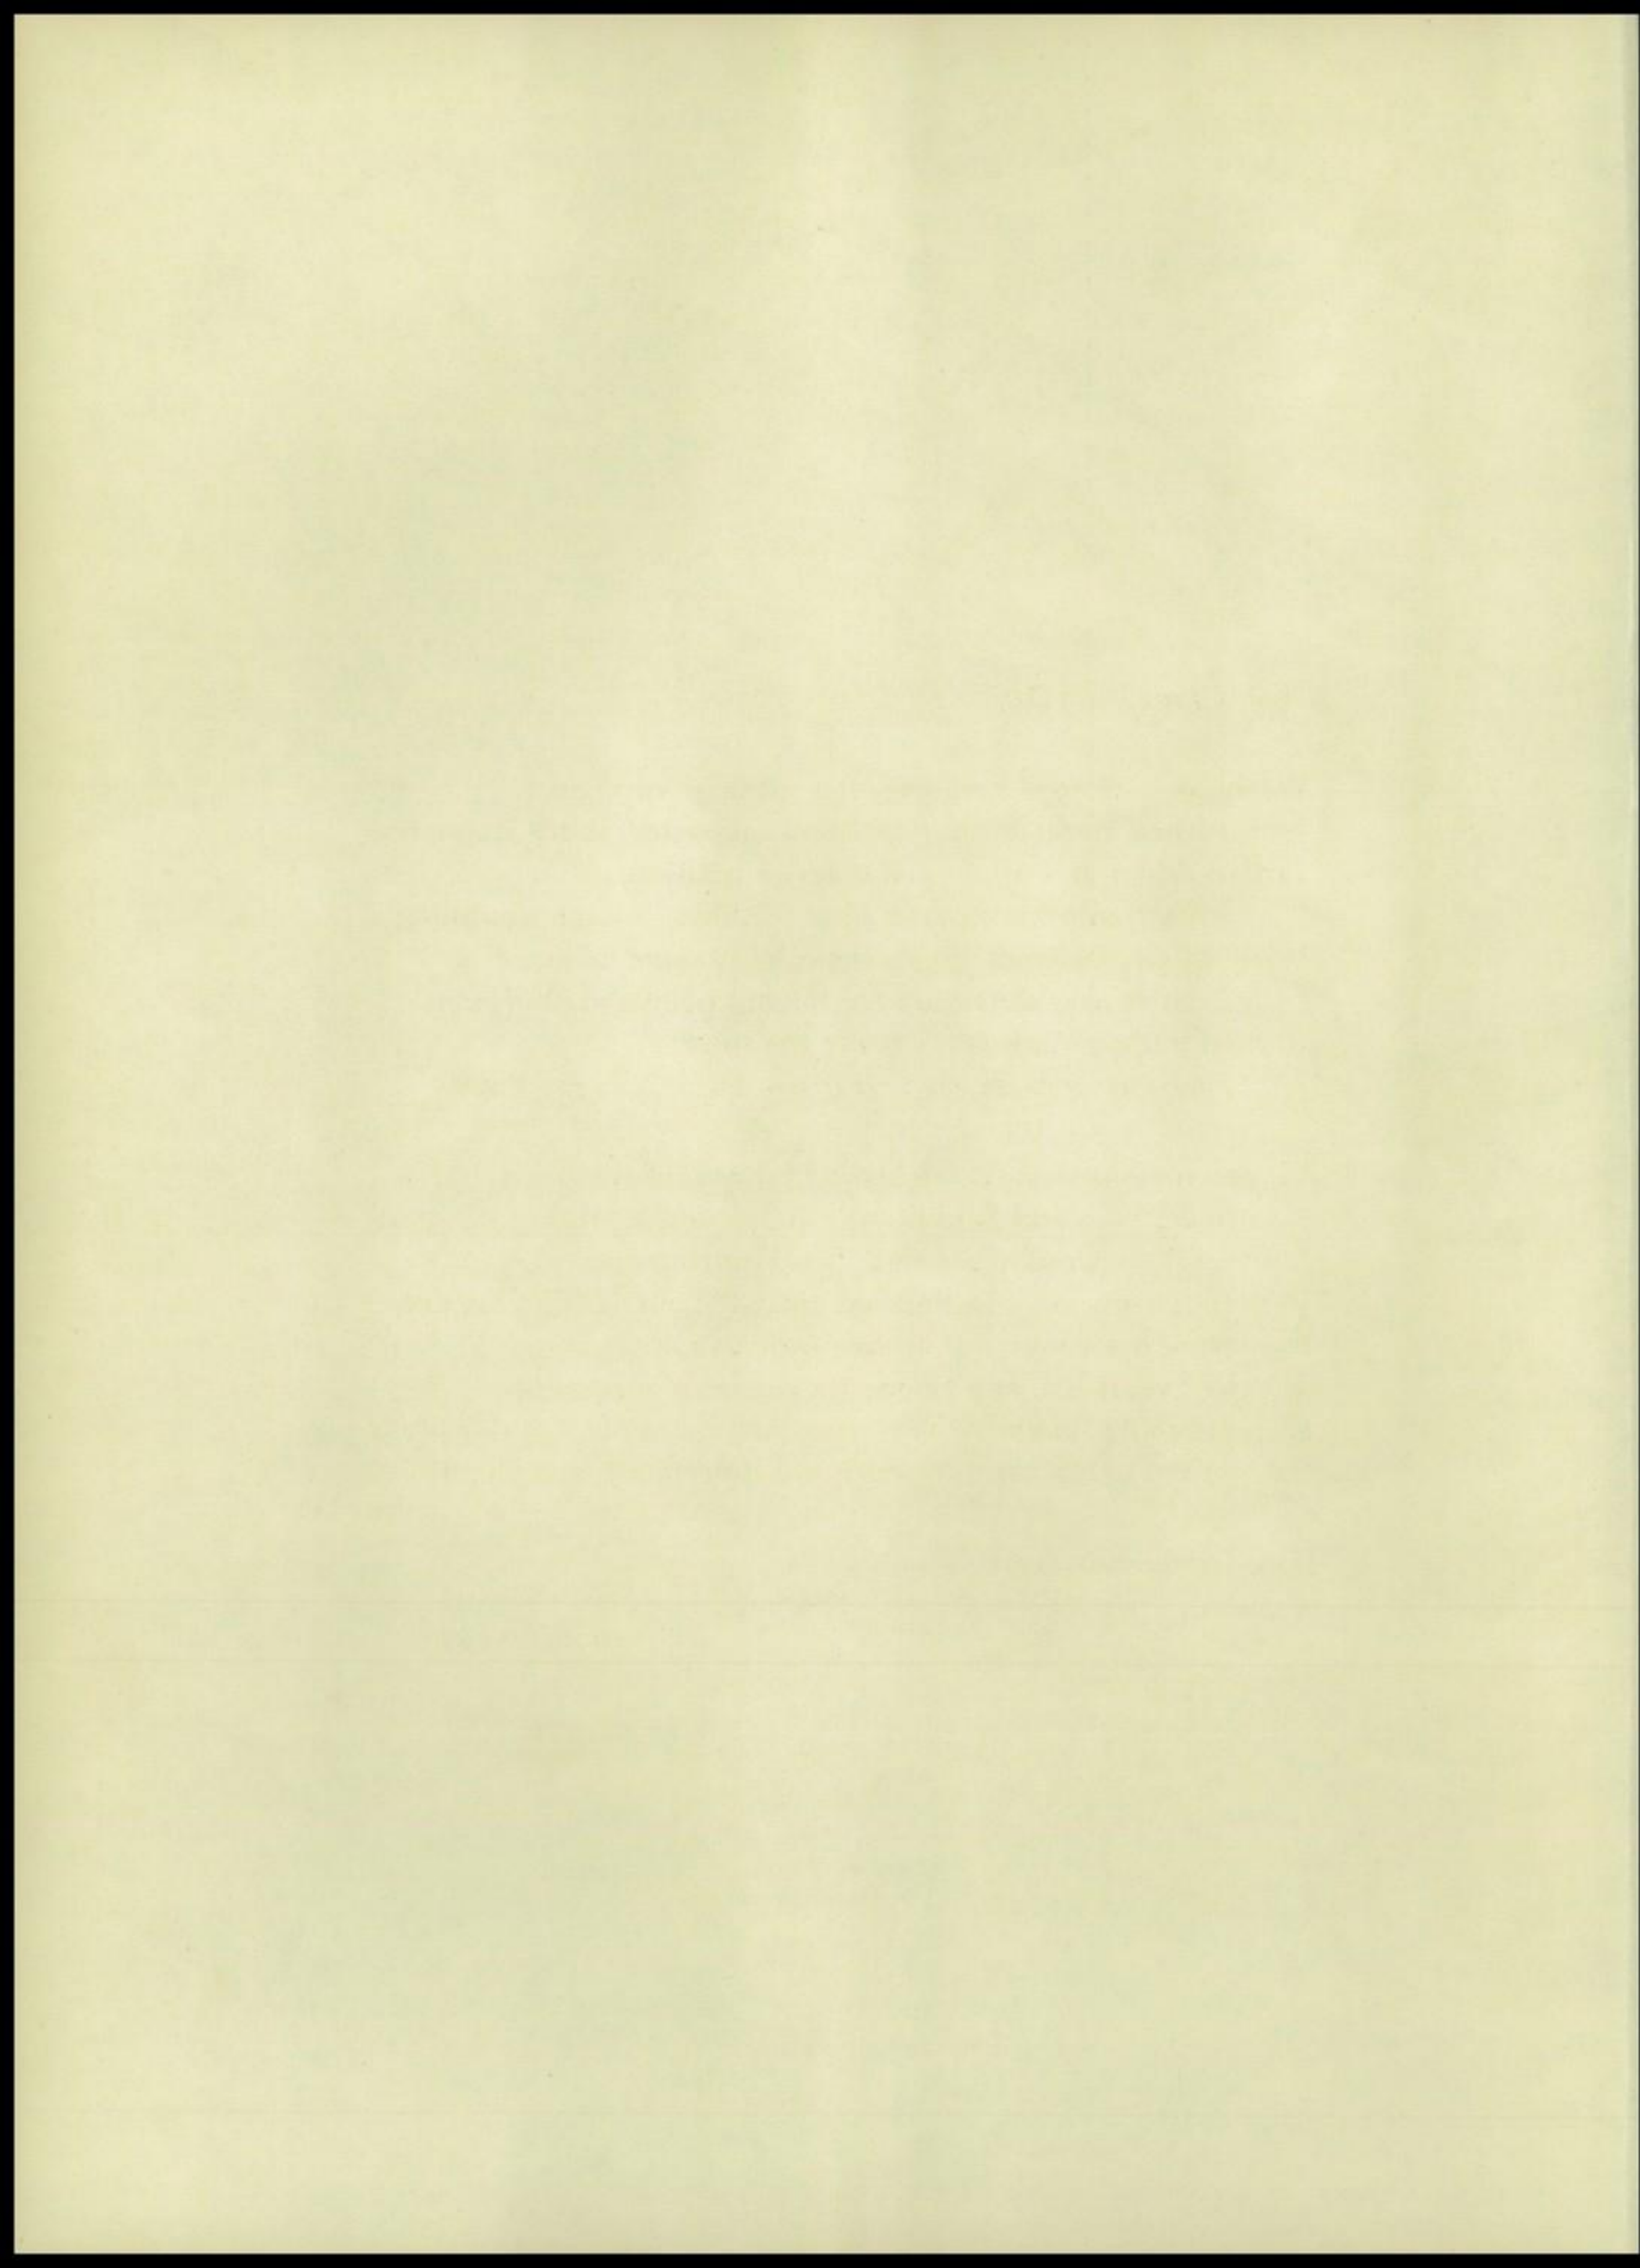

Hail, Graduation Day!

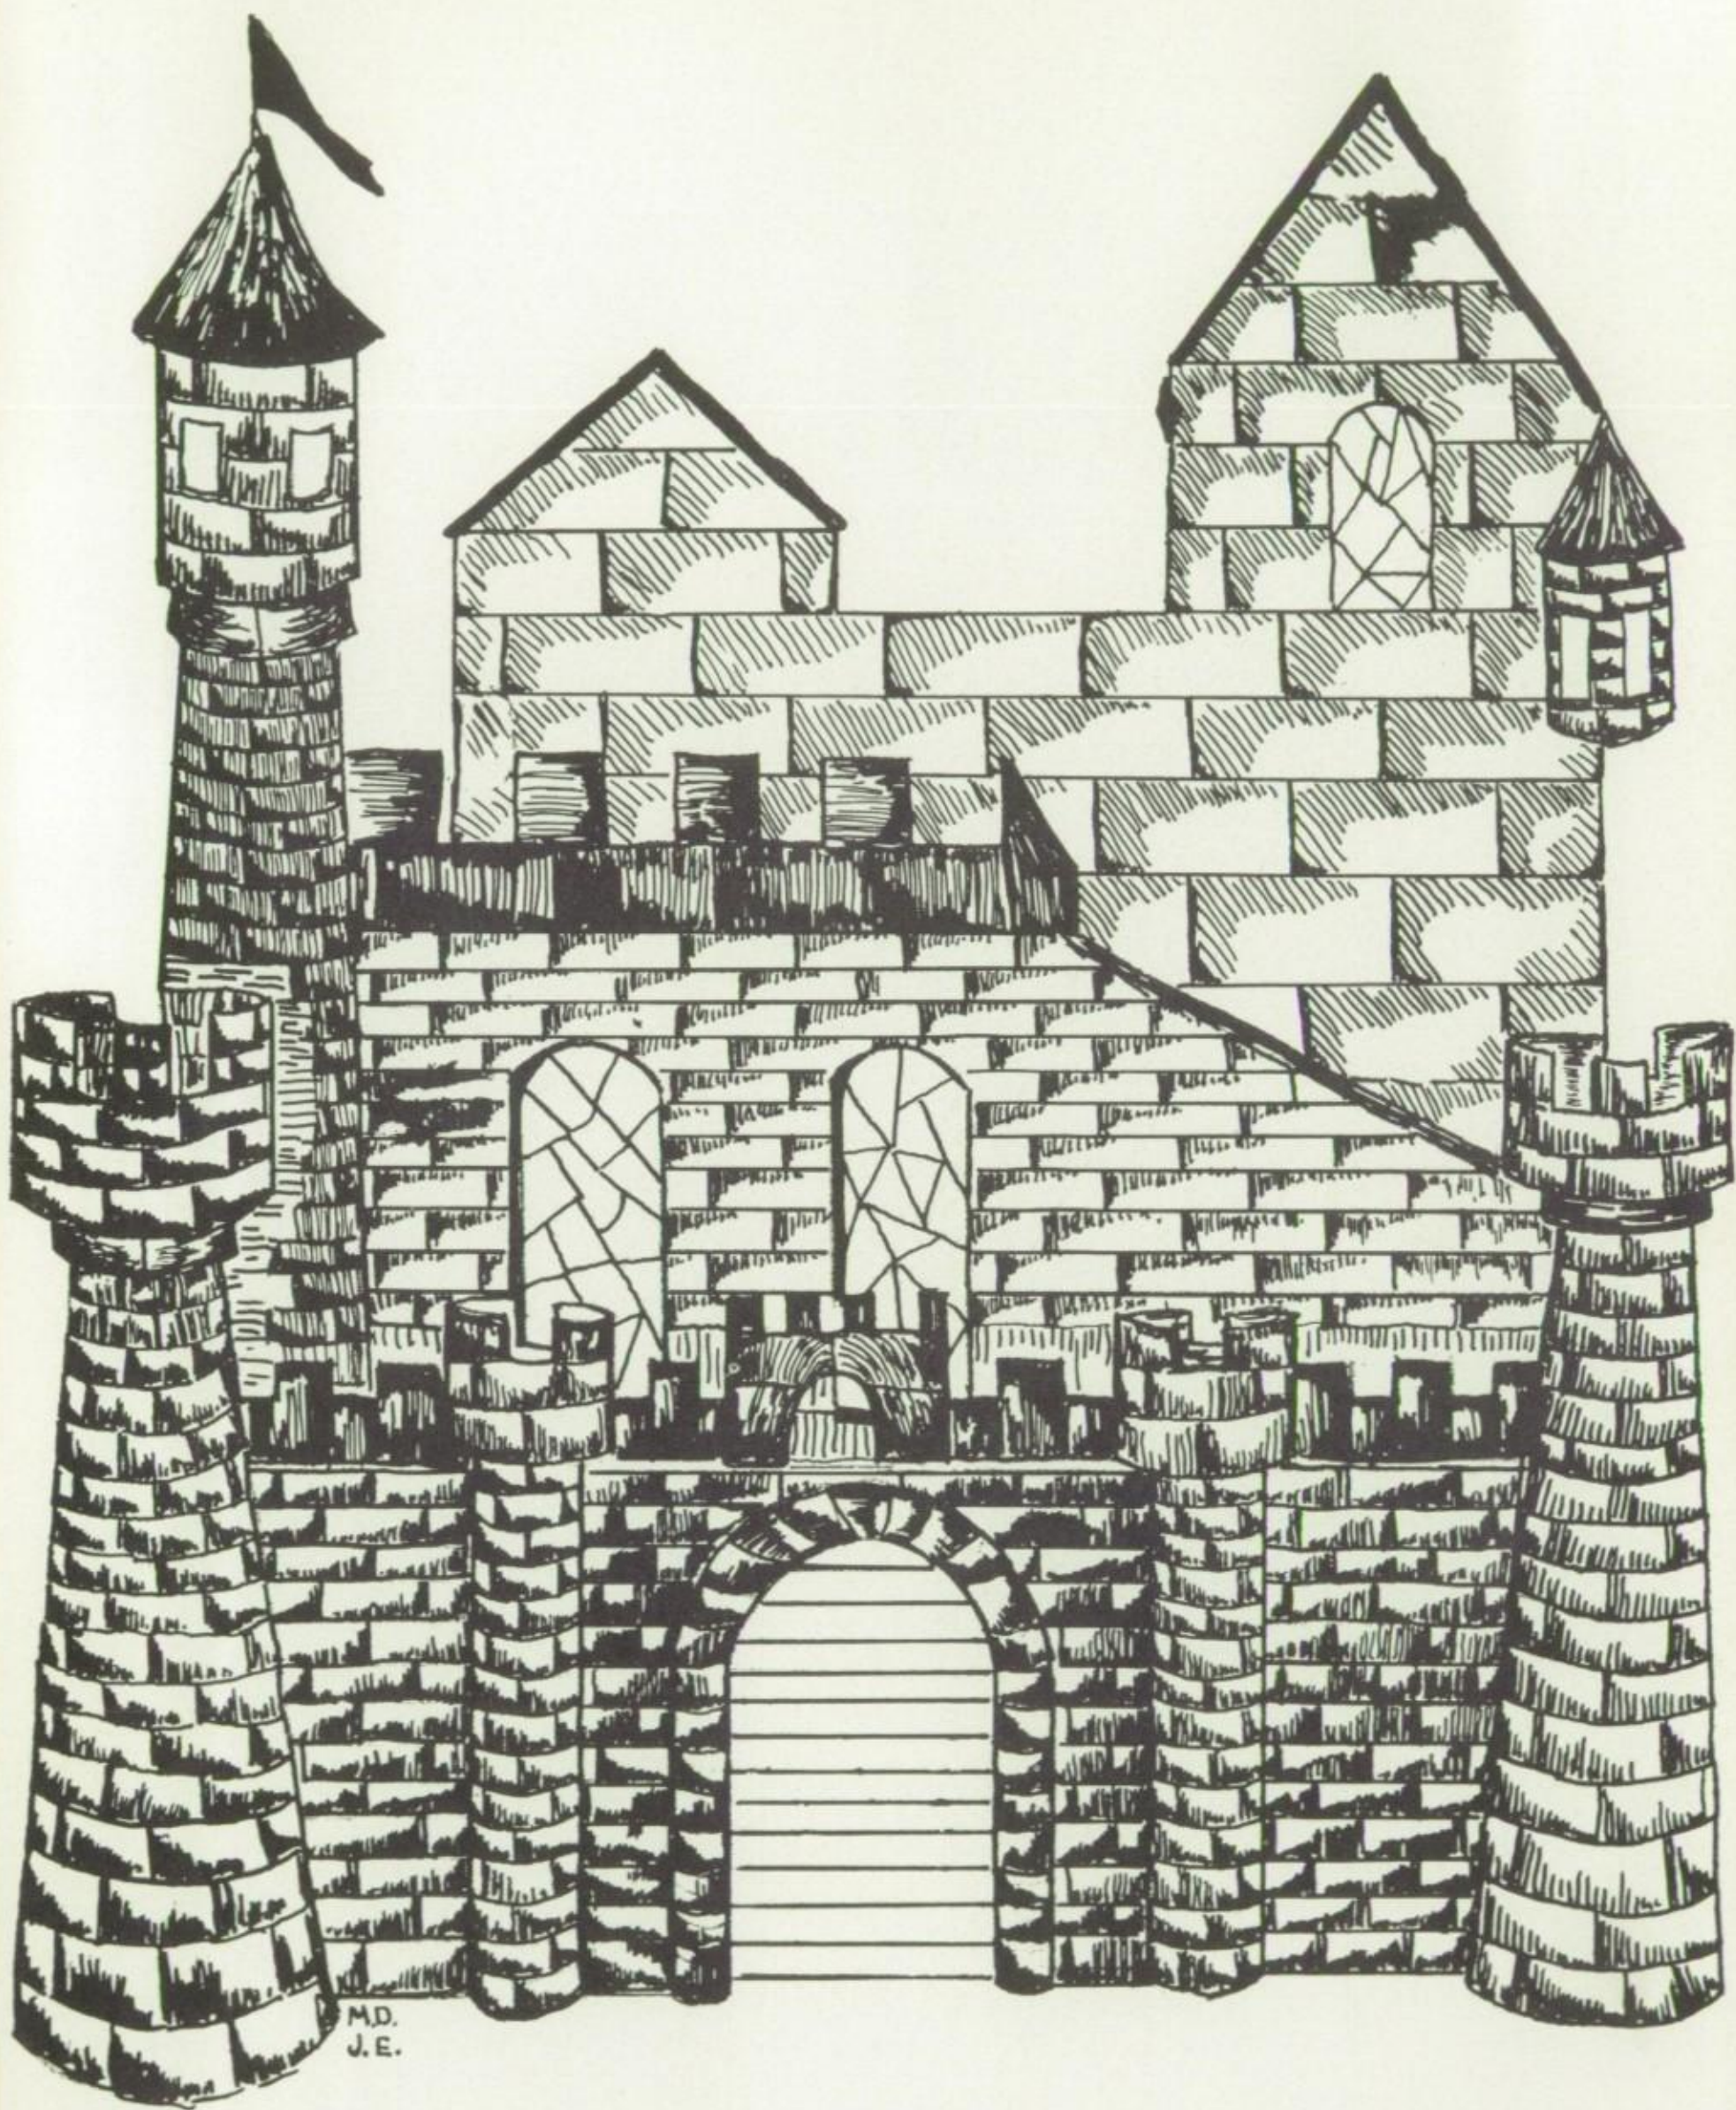

We came back to school after the summer vacation,
Turned backs on our freedom, expected sultry stagnation;
Settled down to work — just short of pouting,
All set with anticipated likes, dislikes — even doubting;
Morning classes were great, though, as were afternoons,
Even so was detention for having been class buffoons;
And all our activities were really the tops —
Plays, assemblies, and sports — as well as the hops.

Do you remember how we slaved for grades that were big —
In German and English, and shops and in trig?
It was only yesterday we said, "Not much more;
Tomorrow we'll be finished and walk out through the door."
Tomorrow has come, but all our anticipation
Has vanished, and freedom's dream is frustration,
All's suddenly flown by, and now that we're out,
Please don't deem it odd if we don't jump and shout:

Hail, Graduation Day!

The Senior Class of 1964
dedicates this year book to the memory of the late
President John F. Kennedy

RIDERLESS*

Behind the flag-draped bier
A stallion pranced along
Its proud head jerking to and fro
To Chopin's funeral song.
Riderless, yet, I could see
A spirit riding there
A youthful smiling president
His hair ruffled in air.
Would this be the Master's way
To tell those left behind
Peace and freedom in this world
Are meant for all mankind
Ride on, O Spirit, through the years
None of us will forget
Your words which said, "Go forward"
Although our hearts are wet
Prance on, Riderless Stallion
Your rider paid the price
Take his soul upward
Into paradise.

ALBERT L. HENRY, B.A., M.A.
Superintendent of Schools

Mr. Henry has distinguished himself for his leadership in school administration. Known to the students because of his presence at school functions and to the community because of his work, Mr. Henry has completed his third year with us as Superintendent of Northampton Area Schools.

NORMAN A. LAUB, B.S., M.A.
Principal

Managing the complex organization of the high school, directing its operating mechanism, and supervising its curriculum and activities are only a part of the never-ending tasks of our Principal, Mr. Laub. In these, as well as in his relations with everyone, including the students, he can always be depended upon for the best.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

Officially known as the Northampton Area School Committee, this is the group which not only represents the seven School Boards but carries out the active policy level functions of all, plus such matters as the employment of teachers, carrying out of State rules, formulating or amending school regulations, and budgeting and allocating of funds. In return, they receive the appreciation of staff and student alike, and the self-satisfaction that goes with conscientious effort.

ALFRED LAUBACH, Ph.B., M.A.

Administrative Assistant

Assisting the Principal, advising the Student Council, coordinating myriads of administrative details, coping with innumerable new situations are only a few of the multitude of cares resting upon the capable shoulders of Mr. Laubach. With it all, he is still able to maintain his friendly attitude and his hearty laugh.

ALBERT M. LERCH, B.S., M.Ed.

Director of Guidance and Activities

Interviewing and counseling students, getting them jobs or into college, administering exams, helping them with problems, and scheduling assemblies are the major tasks that guarantee every day to be a busy one for Mr. Lerch. He is never too busy to be a friend to all, however.

FLORA OBRECHT, B.A., M.A.

Girls Guidance Counselor

Nothing is ever too much trouble for Mrs. Obrecht, who always has a sympathetic ear and a helping hand for girl and boy alike. Whatever the problem, or whether it relates to past, present, or future, one factor never changes — Mrs. Obrecht is always ready and willing to assist.

These are the school plans we didn't use.

Ivan P. Schneck

August 27, 1908 — November 23, 1963

Devoted . . . helpful . . . willing . . . kind . . . patient . . . understanding . . . fun-loving . . . friendly . . . these are a few of the descriptive terms characteristic of Mr. Schneck.

He came to Northampton in 1942 after teaching in Slatington and Morrisville, with several years in farming and with the Pennsylvania Power and Light Company interspersed. Bookkeeping and Office Machines were his subjects; in these he excelled, and the Safe Drivers Club he sponsored was the forerunner of the Safety and Driver Education courses now offered.

His great loves were teaching and the land, and we are fortunate to have had the benefit of one of these. In the eyes of students and colleagues alike, he was "strict but yet very understanding," he "always had time for a laugh but afterwards he would get down to business," he was "a kind man, a generous man, a sympathetic man, but most of all a dedicated man — dedicated to the teaching profession and the tasks before him."

"If it's the last thing I do on this earth, I'll teach you bookkeeping," he often said — and this he did. If he was sick, he worried more about his students than he did about his health. Even to the end, he was concerned about his professional work and his students.

Mr. Schneck was a great man, not in terms of wealth, fame, or the other usual marks; his greatness lay in the devotion, dedication, and nobility he gave to teaching and everyone with whom he came into contact. He left an indelible mark here.

Cafeteria Staff

Whether preparing or serving it, the Cafeteria staff helps to make our noon meal a pleasant one. Mrs. Mary Zirinsky, our efficient and competent dietician, plans the nourishing and tasty meals.

Custodial Staff

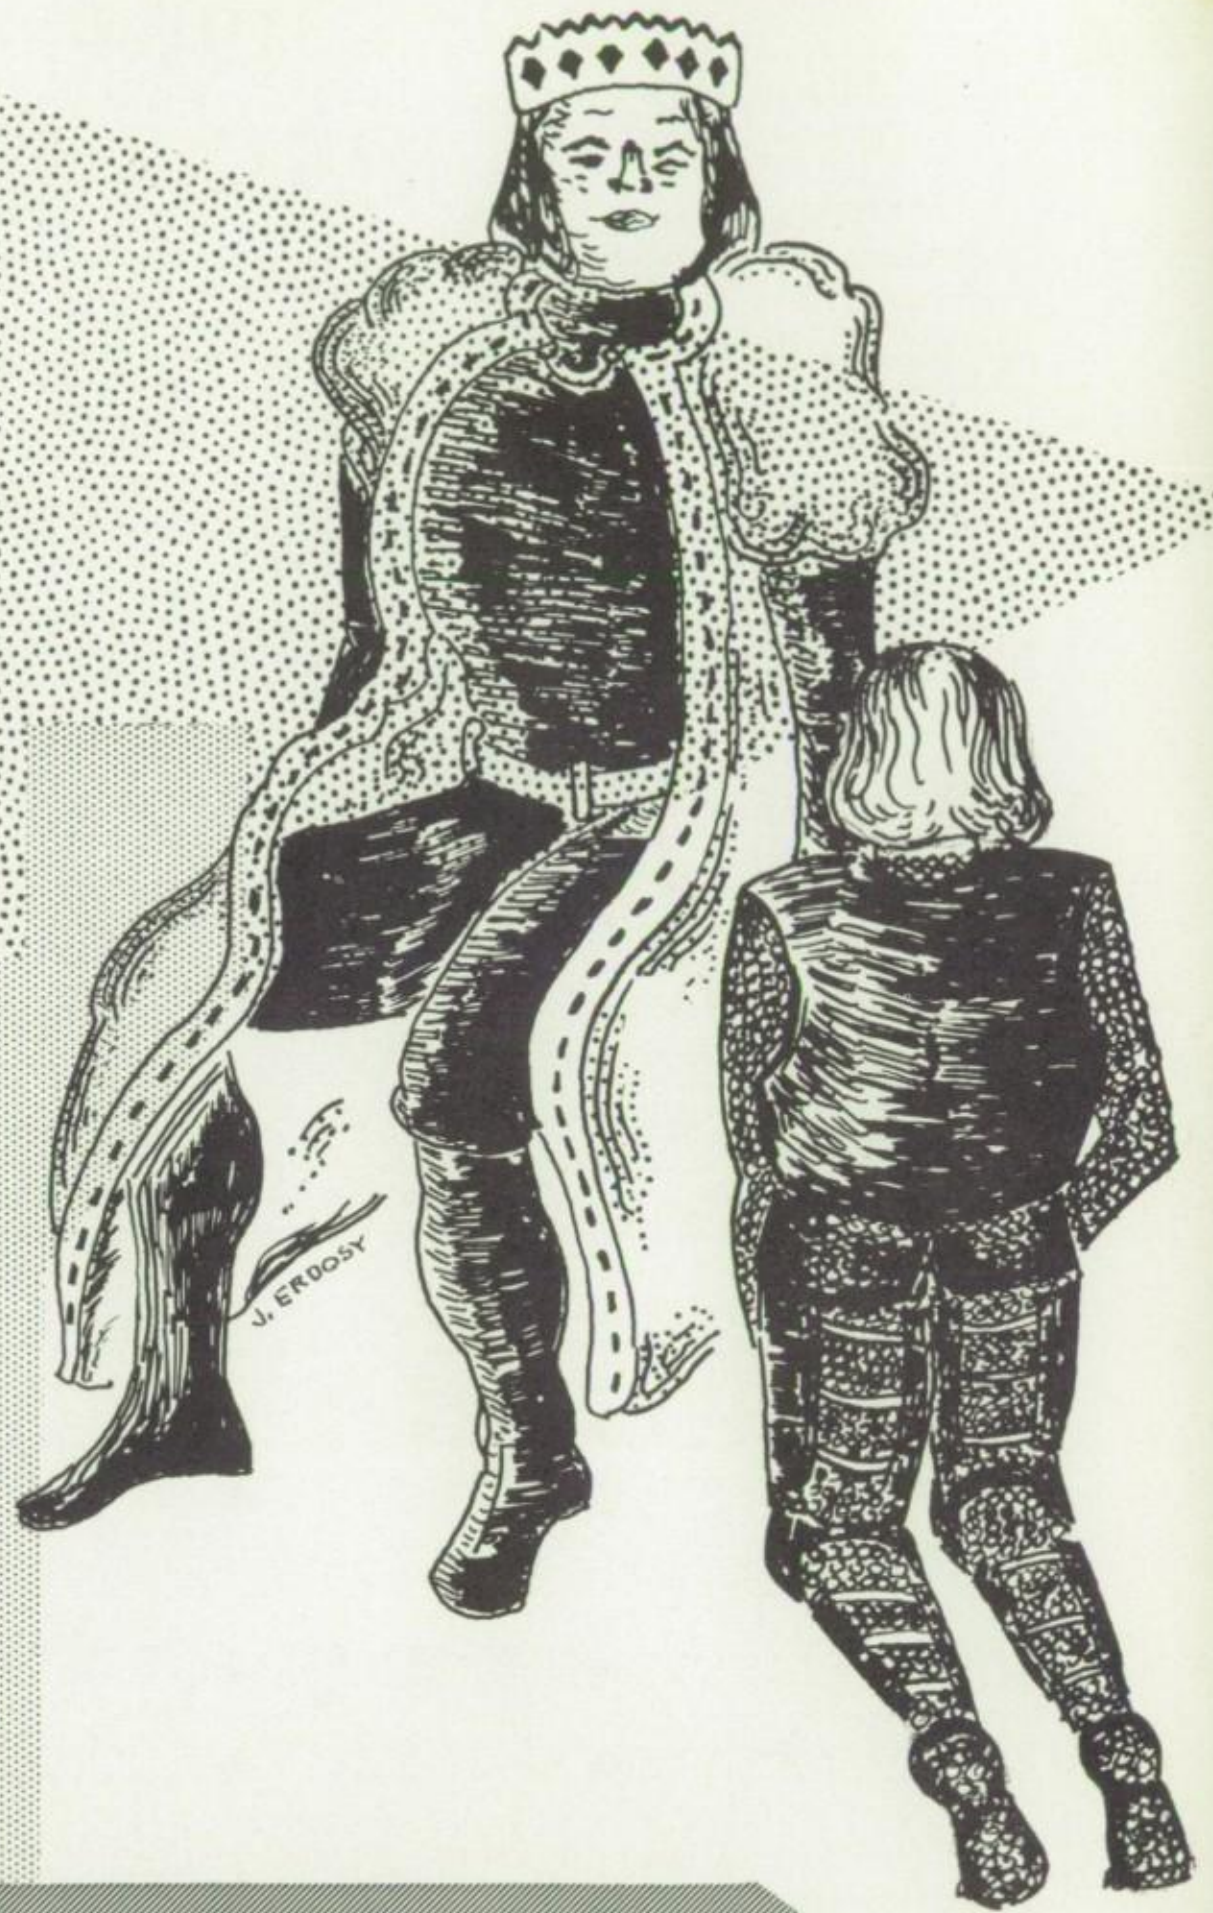

The important work of heating the school properly, keeping the building in tip-top condition, caring for the school grounds in summer and winter, and the million and one related tasks that continually crop up, assure our custodial staff a very busy schedule. Their work reflects the utmost in care and interest.

Medical Staff

The health and well-being of the entire student body is zealously guarded and constantly watched over by Dr. M. G. Miller, our school medical examiner, and Mrs. Mary Lou Lentz, school nurse. These competent individuals comprise the team we call our medical staff, and into whose capable hands we entrust ourselves.

Mrs. Mary Lou Lentz, R.N., and Dr. M. G. Miller smile for the Amptennian photographer.

"THEY CAN CONQUER WHO BELIEVE THEY CAN"

A Message to the Senior Class:

The point in everyone's life when the gay, carefree moments of school are suddenly gone, just as suddenly displaced by the serious thoughts and needs of the future, has come with this occasion — graduation — and the endeavors we are about to face. Some of us are job hunting; others of us are preparing to enter the armed forces; still others will soon be seeking more education in centers of higher learning.

The last few years we have worked together as a closely knit group; enjoyed activities, making common decisions, increasing our knowledge, and maturing our minds. All at once, the time has come to use our maturity and wisdom for molding our lives into something useful and secure. How well we accomplish this is a challenge facing each of us as individuals.

To all of you, each one, go my heartfelt thanks for the cooperation you so willingly gave to make our senior high days both enjoyable and fruitful, and my best wishes for the future. May all your endeavors — whatever — be successful.

Senior Class

Karen L. Anthony
Treichlers
College Preparatory

Not often does a student have the varied interests Karen has. She is outstanding in both studies and athletics and is interested in literature and the theater. Penn State and one of the professions await this many-sided girl.

Activities: Tri-Hi-Y 1; German Club 1; Science and Math Club 1, 2; Library Club 3; National Honor Society 3; Intramural Basketball 2; Baseball 1; Volleyball 1; Varsity Basketball 3.

Donald Asbath
Treichlers
Industrial Arts

Quiet and likeable describe Donald. Going to stock car races and attending athletic events take up most of his leisure time. Perhaps the mechanical trade or the Army will be in Donald's future.

Dennis W. Bachman
Northampton
General

Dennis, usually found at Rachel's garage, is a sports-minded, happy-go-lucky guy. Reading, fishing, and hunting take up this lad's leisure time. Dennis plans an industrial career or possibly enlistment in the service.

Dale H. Atherholt
Walnutport
Secretarial

Wonderful personality, cheerful and always full of fun, best describe "Legs." Working on the farm, bowling, and just driving around keep this lad busy. Right after graduation, Dale plans to enter the Air Force.

Activities: Senior Class Play 3.

Patricia A. Barrall
Bath
Secretarial

Where there's laughter and talk of football games you'll find our pretty and vivacious "Trish." Besides being an active Tri-Hi-Y member, she finds time for dancing, reading, and roller skating. Business college and a secretarial career are in the future for Pat.

Activities: Tri-Hi-Y 1, 2, 3 (Secretary); Fashion Show 3; Amptennian 3; Intramural Volleyball 1; Baseball 1; Basketball 2; Usherette 1, 2.

Linda Barter
Northampton
College Preparatory

As our school's head majorette, Linda smoothly takes the girls through their paces. Being a member of N Club, Courier, and Student Council also adds to her busy schedule. In the future, some college will find Linda a valuable addition to its campus.

Activities: Concrete Courier 1, 2, 3; N Club 2, 3; Student Council 2, 3; Art Exhibit 2; National Honor Society 3; Usherette 1; Color Guard 1; Majorette 2, 3; Intramural Basketball 2.

Keith Barthold
Bath
College Preparatory

Underneath a plentiful pile of long, dark hair, our cute, easy-going and amiable Keith can be found. Swimming, skiing, and reading take up the leisure time of this Courier staff member. This talkative brunette sees a career in medical technology in her future.

Activities: Concrete Courier 1, 2, 3; Library aide 1; National Honor Society 3; Amptennian 3; Fashion Show 3; Senior Class Play 3.

William J. Bauer
Bath
College Preparatory

Shy, but full of ambition — that's Bill! Archery and coin collecting occupy the spare time of this lad, who can be found at the local ice skating pond during the winter months. The future sees Bill in Navy blue.

Kathryn M. Bealer
Bath
College Preparatory

Visualize a petite, talented vocalist with hair black as night, a pair of laughing eyes, a contagious smile and that's Kathy. When not rehearsing for an oncoming concert, she can be found writing letters to Germany. The future reveals a degree in elementary education.

Activities: German Club 1; Girls' Chorus 1, 2, 3; Girls' Ensemble 1, 2, 3; Mixed Ensemble 1, 2; Spring Concert 1, 2; District Chorus 2; Regional Chorus 2; Vespers 1, 2, 3; Senior Class Play 3.

Judy M. Beers
Danielsville
College Preparatory

Hear laughter? — that's "Sudsy." Whether cheering at the games in her black sweatshirt or counting Tri-Hi-Y's big account, Judy is in the center of the giggling gossipers. Scooting down to Hillside in her green DeSoto is her favorite pastime. Next stop — the Marines.

Activities: Tri-Hi-Y 1, 2, 3 (Treasurer); Amptennian 3; Usherette 2, 3; Intramural Basketball 2; Volleyball 1.

Richard Bentz
Northampton
College Preparatory

Hard worker with his nose to the grindstone describes "Bentz." Driving around or shooting pool take up most of his leisure time. Teacher's college or the Lehigh Valley Dairy cheese plant will find Rich a valuable addition.

Activities: Vespers 3; Football 1; Track 1.

Adele Benjamin
Northampton
Secretarial

A pug nose and a cute smile describe "Sniffles." Being a member of the National Honor Society and Amptennian Business Staff keep Adele busy. Her leisure hours are spent in playing the piano, participating in sports, and supporting the Luther League. A secretarial career awaits Adele.

Activities: National Honor Society 2, 3; Amptennian 3; Art Exhibit 3.

Dean Michael Berg
Northampton
College Preparatory

Tuba player, weight lifter, and experimenter in way-out physics projects describes "Ox." A truly versatile and dedicated student, Dean enjoys reading and traveling, and also shows perfect form as our wrestling champ. The medical profession will welcome this future psychiatrist.

Activities: Science Fair 1, 2, 3; District Band 1, 3; Dance Band 2, 3; Band 1, 2, 3; Chorus 1, 2, 3; District Chorus 1, 2; Mixed Ensemble 2, 3; Vespers 1, 2, 3; Wrestling 1, 2, 3; National Honor Society 2, 3.

Rodger E. Berg
Northampton
College Preparatory

Confused? Ask Rodger. He knows the answer — or just where to find it. A valuable asset to our Band and Boys' Chorus, he enjoys sports of all kinds. A medical degree plus a specialization is his plan for the future.

Activities: Band 1, 2, 3; Chorus 1, 2, 3; Vespers 1, 2, 3; Junior Speaking Contest 2; National Honor Society 2, 3; Spring Concert 1, 2, 3; Student Council 2.

Bernadette O. Bilder
Northampton
Secretarial

Smiling, laughing, and telling jokes characterize "Bernie." Writing letters to that certain someone, bowling, and roller skating occupy much of this girl's spare time. The future sees her as a top-notch secretary or stenographer.

Activities: Amptennian 3.

Mary Ann J. Binder
Northampton
Secretarial

Sparkling brown eyes, a cute smile, quiet until you know her, describe "Ralph." Collecting records and swimming take up most of her leisure time. Weekends find her at Holtzer's Restaurant. The future sees her as a typist or office machine operator.

Activities: Senior Class Play 3.

Sharon Bittenbender
Bath
College Preparatory

"Jaron" is the class clown with the cute smile. Her experience as a "Candy Striper" will be an aid when she dons the white cap of a nurse and graces the halls of St. Luke's Hospital.

Activities: Chorus 1, 2, 3; Gym Club 1; District Chorus 3; Regional Chorus 3; Ensemble 1, 2, 3; Mixed Ensemble 2, 3; Vespers 1, 2, 3; Spring Concert 1, 2, 3.

James M. Blaschak
Northampton
College Preparatory

Managing wrestling and other school activities keep "Jim" busy. Archery, bowling, and girls are his special interests when he isn't found at "Steady Eddy's." Jim's future sees him with the Marines and a college education.

Activities: Wrestling 1, 2, 3 (Manager); Track 1, 2, 3; Weight Club 1.

Linda M. Bogarosh
Northampton
Secretarial

Linda or "Bogie" as she is called by her friends, will always be remembered by her smiling, cheerful attitude toward whom-ever she meets. The future sees her as a typist or flying high in the clouds as an airline hostess.

Activities: Senior Class Play 3.

Ronald L. Bond
Danielsville
College Preparatory

A friendly smile and helping hand only half describe "Ron." He has an active interest in cars and collecting stamps and coins when he's not seen in Pottsville. Technical school and a printing press await Ron after graduation.

Activities: Chorus 1.

Allen C. Borda
Bath
General

Spinning records at the school dances, you'll find "the Fearless Leader," looking very mean, but still overflowing with humor and sporting his new "sophisticated look." He's usually found at the poolroom or home playing records. The carefree life as bachelor and D-J are for Al.

Activities: Science Club 1; Student Council 1, 2, 3 (President); Drama Club 3 (President); Debate Club 3; Courier 3; Senior Class Play 3; Spring Concert 2; Fashion Show 3.

Ernest E. Breiner
Bath
College Preparatory

Shy and serious — that's Ernie. He is always on the cheerful side while in school. Ernie's leisure time is spent on cars, traveling, farming, and hunting. Ernie loves to attend circuses and fairs. Next will be college and engineering.

Ruth A. Brobst
Bath
General

Gay and friendly, "Ruthie" is an active member of the Klecknersville Rangers Auxiliary. She can be found at all football games and enjoys oil painting and sewing. The future sees her as a typist.

Activities: Fashion Show 1, 2, 3.

Robert A. Brown
Bath
College Preparatory

Here's our Bob! His cheerful laugh is a giveaway, he's tops in gymnastics, and girls and cars are his main weakness. For him, it's down to the sea in ships.

Activities: Gym Team 1, 2; Gym Exhibition 1.

Dennis W. Bruder
Northampton
General

Our ardent gymnastic, "Et-te" can usually be seen walking down the hallowed halls of Northampton high or driving his famous "black Ford." Harhart's service station occupies most of his spare time. His future is uncertain.

Activities: Gym Club 2, 3.

Bonnie L. Bundy
Northampton
Secretarial

Smiling, laughing, and talking—that's our little "Bonnie." She's never at home, and can usually be seen running about the halls in the morning. She enjoys swimming, bowling, and dancing. The future sees our Bonnie as a secretary or an airline hostess.

Mary Ann Bundy
Bath
College Preparatory

Quiet, conservative, and always cheerful describe Mary Ann. Most of her leisure time is spent in reading, and listening to popular music. The future holds a nursing cap for Mary Ann.

Carol A. Burbes
Northampton
Secretarial

Quiet, shy, and always smiling — that's our Carol. She's usually either reading a book or eating at the Blue Lantern. We see this happy gal as a secretary.

William J. Burkhardt
Treichlers
College Preparatory

Talkative, care-free, and happy-go-lucky — that's "Bill" — our handsome sax player. Whether he's cracking one of his jokes or driving his Chevy, Bill's always laughing. Chorus, band, and golf hold a keen interest in this boy's life. It's college for him.

Activities: Band 1, 2, 3; Chorus 1, 2, 3; N Club 3; Vespers 1, 2, 3; Spring Concert 1, 2, 3; District Band 1; State Band 1.

Michael E. Burns
Bath
College Preparatory

"Burnsie" is off to the drags, and on weekends is seen at Hillside. Our well-dressed Rembrandt devotes his talents to swimming and dancing. College or the armed forces await Mike.

Activities: Wrestling 2.

John Cesanek
Northampton
Industrial Arts

John is a faithful chorus member who likes hunting and other outdoor activities. Running a farm or raising cattle is fun to him now and his job later. Between them, it will be Uncle Sam's Navy.

Activities: Chorus 1, 2, 3; Spring Concert 1, 2, 3.

George M. Chabak
Northampton
College Preparatory

"Fire!" There goes George! Whether fighting fires, developing pictures for Photo club, or dashing around the track, George is always smiling. This happy-go-lucky fellow will be an asset to the Navy.

Activities: Track 1, 2, 3; Photo Club 2.

Chester Cinamella
Walnutport
College Preparatory

"Strike" — that's Chet striking out another batter. Besides baseball, he enjoys hunting, dog training, and riding around on his cycle. His plans for the future include college and an M.D.

Activities: Band 1; Baseball 1, 2, 3; Vespers 1.

Paul Connolly Jr.
Bath
College Preparatory

Tall Paul, one of the friendliest and most talkative guys in our school, can usually be found at the Bath pool hall. A state police recruiting station is the next stop for this young man.

Activities: Photo Club 2.

Sandra A. Dech
Northampton
Secretarial

Sandy, Mr. Pany's favorite extra activity student, is a cute, brown-haired girl, who always finds time to smile or talk. Singing and dancing are her favorite activities along with a strong interest in gymnastics. Hillside is her favorite hangout.

Activities: Gym Club 2, 3; Fashion Show 1; Intramural Volleyball 1.

Nanette J. Dech
Northampton
College Preparatory

Talkative and laughing — that's Nanette — our peppy color sergeant. Ice skating occupies most of this popular girl's spare time. President of the National Honor Society and Amptennian literary editor, Nanette will enlighten any college campus with her bright smile and pleasing personality.

Activities: Tri-Hi-Y (President) 1, 2, 3; National Honor Society 2, 3 (President); Amptennian 2, 3; Senior Class Play 3; Varsity Basketball 3 (Manager); Color Guard 1, 2, 3 (Sergeant); Intramural Baseball 1; Volleyball 1; Basketball 2.

Susan Dech
Northampton
College Preparatory

Sparkling blue eyes and short, blonde hair are just part of Susie's terrific personality. Sewing her own clothing and being an active member of 4-H are her pastimes. There's no doubt Penn State will be glad to receive Susan as a freshman next year.

Activities: Amptennian 2; Chorus 1, 2, 3; Ensemble 1, 2, 3; National Honor Society 3; Mixed Ensemble 1; Art Exhibit 1; Vespers 1, 2, 3; Spring Concert 1, 2, 3.

Nancy A. DeLucia
Northampton
Secretarial

Big brown eyes, always smiling — that's Nancy. Constantly on the go, this gal can be found pounding a typewriter, attending Tri-Hi-Y meetings, or visiting the C & M or Miller's diner. Nancy's dream is a year at business college and a secretarial position.

Activities: Tri-Hi-Y 1, 2, 3; Amptennian 3; Usherette 3; Intramural Baseball 1; Basketball 2.

Richard T. Deibert
Walnutport
General

"Dick" can always be found at Lloyd's or working on his car. A quiet personality is a contributing factor toward making him a well-liked person. The Air Force awaits Dick after graduation.

Activities: Track 1.

Richard P. Demchyk
Northampton
Secretarial

Ready for a laugh and mischief describe "Pete." When not working, he can be found at Chip's. The future sees "Pete" in the Marines or as a State Police officer.

Walter Derr
East Allen
General

Fishing rates high with "Diz," along with hunting and driving. A real outdoorsman, Walter plans to enjoy the atmosphere on the high seas with the Navy.

Connie L. Diehl
Bath
Secretarial

"Yea team," yells "Diz" as she leads the kids in cheers. This blue-eyed blonde can be found at Hillside, modeling for Zollinger-Harned, or winning beauty contests. Her plans for the future include a secretarial or modeling career.

Activities: Chorus 1; Vespers 1; Spring Concert 1; Gym Team 2, 3; Cheerleader 1, 2, 3; Intramural Basketball 2; Volleyball 1; Baseball 1; Varsity Basketball 3; Amptennian 3.

Linda L. Dreher
Walnutport
Secretarial

Happy-go-lucky and always smiling — that's Linda. She's found at Lloyd's restaurant or Edgemont skating rink, which accounts for her bruised knees. This great chorus member is assistant organist in her church and pianist of the Luther League. Her choice: an organ teacher or secretary.

Activities: Chorus 1, 2, 3; Vespers 1, 2, 3; Spring Concert 1, 2, 3.

Quentin H. Dimmick
Northampton
General

A smiling face and a natural musical ability describe Quentin. NHS's brilliant pianist and vocalist plans to continue his musical training and teach others to appreciate music.

Activities: Chorus 2, 3; District Chorus 2; Boys' Octet 2, 3; Vespers 2, 3; Spring Concert 2, 3; Mixed Ensemble 3.

Dennis Dreisbach
Northampton
General

Dennis, former wrestling manager, exhibited his ability when he became Junior Varsity heavy-weight champion. "Worm" plans to become a hospital technician.

Activities: Track 1; Wrestling 2.

Mary Ann Drofitz
Northampton
College Preparatory

"Mad" is also known as "MD" about town. Her very friendly nature reveals her presence at all times. Next to boy watching, she enjoys reading non-fiction books, writing poetry, and building model houses. Our Amptennian art editor will study art and journalism at Kutztown this fall.

Activities: German Club 1; Chorus 1, 2, 3; Vespers 1, 2, 3; Spring Concert 1, 2, 3; National Honor Society 3; Intramural Basketball 2; Baseball 1; Volleyball 1; Amptennian 3; Art Exhibit 1, 2, 3.

Sandra L. Druckenmiller
Northampton
Secretarial

A radiant smile and a pair of perky green eyes describe "Druck," our flashy color guard. Druck can be found spreading laughter at the Dip. Besides studying, she keeps herself busy reading or dancing. Her future includes dancing and a career as a teacher.

Activities: Student Council 2; Baseball 1.

Margaret Temos
Bath
Secretarial

Long black hair and a warm personality best describe "Peggy." An active member of Tri-Hi-Y, she is always instigating mischief. A secretarial job is in the wind for this bright-eyed gal.

Activities: Student Council 2, 3; Usherette 2; Tri-Hi-Y 1, 2, 3.

Donna Thomas
Northampton
College Preparatory

Cute, quiet, and friendly describe Donna. This blue-eyed lass enjoys cooking, reading, and bowling in her spare time. Kutztown and a degree in teaching is next for Donna.

Activities: German Club 2.

Patricia Anne Tomasits
Bath
Secretarial

Football and baseball games rate high with "Patty Anne." In her spare time she can be found at Hillside. Patty's plans for the future include IBM school, a secretarial position, and the title of Mrs.

Activities: Student Council 3 (Vice-President).

George L. Trinkle
Northampton
College Preparatory

Here comes "Coolie," our card shark! He can always be found at the Hilltop or Stick's gas station. The future sees "G" either off to school again or doing Marine maneuvers.

David Usher
Walnutport
College Preparatory

Reading, wrestling, and science interest Dave. The class of '64 could not have done without his timely "debates" with select teachers. His unforgettable smile and his "devil-may-care" attitude contribute to his popularity with the girls.

Activities: Science Club 1, 2; Wrestling 1, 2, 3; Lighting Crew 1, 2, 3; Drama Club 3.

James F. Wagner
Northampton
Industrial Arts

Our happy-go-lucky head football manager is a fellow who likes to golf in his spare time. To be a state police officer is his ultimate goal; the Navy is his immediate choice upon graduation.

Activities: Football 2, 3; Baseball 1.

David H. Wall
Northampton
College Preparatory

A slam to the mat, and it's another pin for State, Regional, and District champ Dave Wall (Wally). Little but powerful describe this blue-eyed, blond matman. Always being on the go won't change for Dave. As for the future, only time will tell.

Activities: Weight Club 1, 3; Courier 2, 3; Track 2, 3; Vespers 3; Wrestling 1, 2, 3.

Peter B. Wanagel
Northampton
Industrial Arts

"Pete" is a very quiet boy. A favorite pastime is working on his models and drawings. Pete's future may find him in the Army taking up drafting for a subsequent occupation.

Activities: National Honor Society 3; Stage Crew 3; Track 3.

Linda Sue Ward
Moore
College Preparatory

Neat, attractive, and full of vim and vigor is Linda. She bubbles with enthusiasm over her activities. Her talents lie in music and art. An art career will add the burnishing touch to this "brunette."

Activities: Chorus 1, 2, 3; Vespers 1, 2, 3; Spring Concert 1, 3; Mixed Ensemble 2, 3; Amptennian 3; Ensemble 1, 2, 3.

Edward M. Weider
Northampton
Industrial Arts

Fishing and train models occupy the spare time of quiet, easy-going Ed. He can be found at many school activities, or munching an ice cream cone at Hillside. A future as a carpenter awaits Ed.

Robert J. Weinhofer
Northampton
College Preparatory

Where there's a little laughter, you're sure to find "Wings." Usually he can be found cracking some new joke at the Lincoln Building in Coplay. The Marines, then college will take Bob after graduation.

Cheryl L. Weiner
Northampton
Secretarial

"Sherry," giggling and talkative, can be found at the Dip. Our Color Guard's contagious laugh and pleasing personality will cheer anyone up. Business college and a career as a secretary are in the future for Sherry.

Activities: Gym Club 1; German Club 1; Color Guard 2, 3; Tri-Hi-Y 3; N Club 3; Amptennian 3; Varsity Basketball 3; Intramural Volleyball 2; Baseball 1; Basketball 2.

Edward Werner
Northampton
Industrial Arts

Edward, a very cordial and sincere person, takes pride in his work. He spends time hunting, trapping, or working on engines. The future sees Edward in the Marines.

Patricia D. Werner
Northampton
College Preparatory

Friendly and loads of laughs — that's Pat. Talk, Amptennian, and cartoons for the school newspaper take up most of this gal's time. The future sees Pat in Air Force blue.

Activities: German Club 1; Usherette 1; Courier 2, 3; Amptennian 3; Senior Class Play 3; Art Exhibit 3.

Robert C. Wilson
Danielsville
College Preparatory

An outstanding sax player is Bob. Being an ardent participant in the Joe Berg Science Seminar and in a real swinging combo, "The Blue Tones," fills his leisure hours. College and a degree in metallurgy await Bob.

Activities: German Club 1; Band 1, 2, 3; Chorus 1, 2, 3; Science Club 2; N Club 3; Vespers 3; Spring Concert 1, 2.

Kenneth Wolf
Northampton
College Preparatory

Making music, trouble, and good marks take up most of "Tennuse's" hours, but he still finds time for the basketball team. A college degree in some field of engineering is next on the agenda for this active guy.

Activities: Band 1, 2, 3; Basketball 3.

Diane Woodring
Northampton
Secretarial

Diane, tiny and sweet, smiles to everyone as she passes them in the halls. Collecting stuffed dogs of all kinds is her passion. The future sees her as a secretary or stenographer.

Activities: Amptennian 3; Fashion Show 3.

Charles O. Buskirk
November 14, 1946 — October 28, 1963

On a lonely road,
In the dark of night —
Came a speeding car,
A flash of light.

The sound of sirens,
The cries of pain,
The kind, gentle voice,
We'll ne'er hear again.

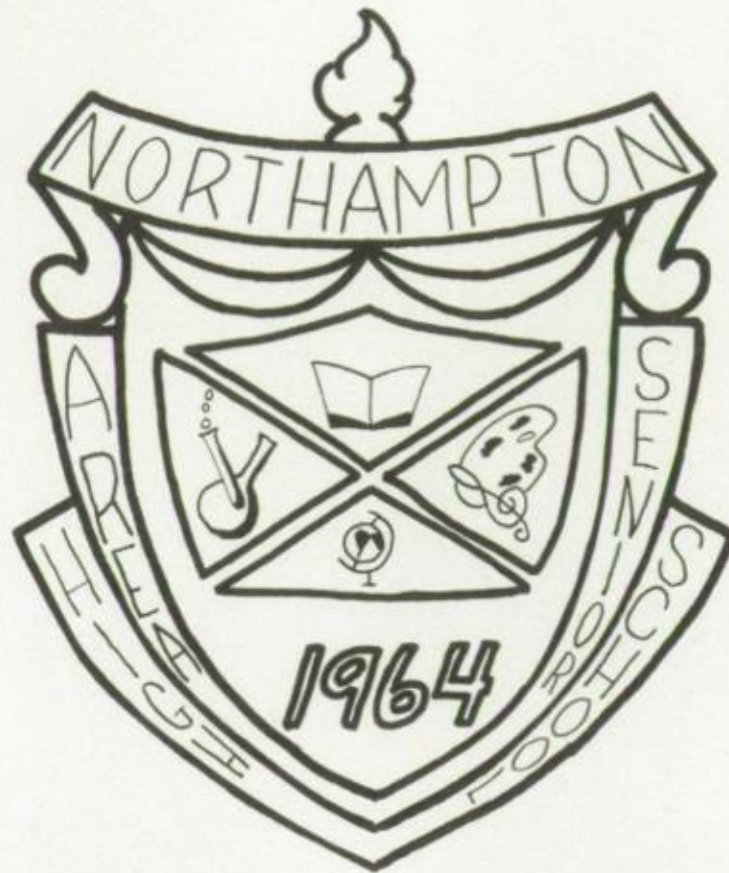

As stars shine above,
So tears fill the eyes;
But always remember,
There are bluer skies.

God gives to all life
And pleasure and pain,
But only through death,
Can we live again.

Although he is gone —
Fated to die;
His life he still lives,
Somewhere in the sky.

— Shirley Mann

SCHOOL EMBLEM

This heraldic emblem, by action of the Board of Education, has become the official seal of the Northampton Area Senior High School as of April 1964.

As such, it constitutes a symbol which proves many possibilities for service to and use by the school and its ever-changing youthful population. Not the least of these is its potential as a class insignia, which may be accomplished by inserting the number designating the proper graduating year.

The Amptennian Staff, for and in behalf of the Class of 1964, is both humbly proud and grateful for this development. We are grateful to the Board of Education, to the school administration, to the school and our fellow students for their fine reception of our handiwork, and we are proud to have been the instrument of its origination.

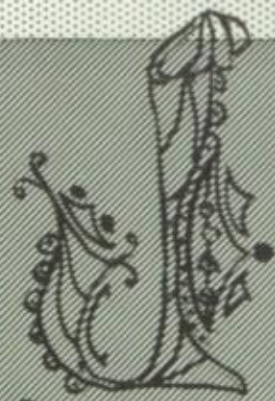

May it proudly emblazon a proud school forever.

Class Motto

"THE KEYS OF KNOWLEDGE OPEN THE GATES TO SUCCESS."

A Message to the Juniors:

We of the Class of 1964 trust your two years in senior high thus far have brought you well along the way to maturity, especially in your awareness of the importance of your serious preparations for the future. You are now on the top rung of the ladder. As seniors, you will be expected to act in the manner becoming those who have worked their way to the top. Underclassmen will be looking to you for guidance and using you as an example for their own actions. At times you will have to work together as a team; at times as an individual. Teamwork is an integral necessity for the numerous events and activities which are part of being seniors, but your scholastic achievements and the grades you attain are your own individual responsibility. Into your hands, then, I place these responsibilities — the responsibilities of top scholastic attitudes and capable leadership. May you use your title of "Senior" proudly — and may every success in your last and most important year at NASHS be yours.

The school government in Northampton High is known as the Student Council. Each homeroom elects delegates, whose responsibility is to represent the individual student, in order to make up the council membership. Gathering patrons for the Catty-Northampton book and selling Senior Prom tickets are a few of the worthwhile activities of the council.

Pres. Borda, Mr. Laubach, and D. Fedorishen survey prom possibilities.

PHOTO CLUB

A hearty "hold it," a flash of light, and a cloud of smoke describe our flash-happy photographers. Under the supervision of Mr. John Frailey, our Photo Club prints the events of the school year. These photos are displayed in the showcase, and interested students may purchase copies — such as those taken of their homerooms.

N CLUB

Probably the greatest single booster of good school spirit is the "N Club." Under the able guidance of Mr. Witemeyer, this active group promotes attendance at all activities and a worthwhile attitude toward the school's lighter moments. Seeing the energetic members selling booster tags or rah-rah shakers, one can only admire their great enthusiasm in serving Northampton High.

AMPTENNIAN STAFF

It's finally finished! It took time and effort, but it was fun. The Amptennian staff's choice of Royalty as its theme was influenced by the class colors, lavender and white. The creations of the Art staff, pictures from the Photo staff, write-ups by the Literary and Sports staffs, arrangements by the Layout staff, reams of typing, solicitations by the Business staff, and long hours of coordinating by the editors sum it up. The result — the 1964 Amptennian.

CONCRETE COURIER

This year's Concrete Courier is bigger and better than ever. The school paper is supervised by Mrs. Marianne Saul and edited by Carl Schaeffer. Each Thursday and Friday, our dependable Courier staff is working on its next edition. After hard hours of toil, the product is distributed to the homerooms and enjoyed by all.

CHEERLEADERS

They say no one is indispensable — but we learned differently. Not only are they indispensable, but the "bounciest" belles as well are our own cheerleaders and majorettes. Coached by Miss Joan Kremus, they lend a gay, lively air to all sporting events — under the direction of Barbara Shellock, cheerleader captain; Linda Barter, head majorette; and Lucille Hollick, drum majorette. Whether urging our teams on to victory or high-stepping before our snappy band, these lassies are the school's best boosters — and school spirit salesmen.

GIRL and BOY OF THE MONTH

Public recognition of superior scholarship, citizenship, character, and participation in school activities is accorded a girl and boy each month by the Northampton Business and Professional

VICTORY DANCE

"Big, Boppin' Borda bops!"

An exciting victory Thanksgiving morning sparked the gay, high spirits for the Victory Dance that night. Dancing to the music provided by "Big, Boppin' Borda's" records, everyone joined in to exhibit the festive mood brought about by the "annual" defeat of Catty.

AUTUMN LEAVES DANCE

Leaves, leaves, everywhere! This colorama, borrowed from nature, made the dance, sponsored by the Delta Tri-Hi-Y, one which all will remember. How can we ever forget it — or the artistic

"bonfire" that centered the dance floor and whose warm cheery light kindled a kindred spirit within us as it spun us into a circle about it.

"Ya wanna trade?"

"I swear I didn't have anything to do with that boycott."

SENIOR CHRISTMAS PARTY

"I don't know about you, but I'm dizzy."

"How long have you been down there?"

With the advent of December, come events which seniors perennially eagerly anticipate — the holiday season, vacation, and — the Senior Christmas Party. This year's party was one few remember coherently. There were too many happenings, such as the "Surfin' Worm," the fireworks, and the powerful punch to remember.

The gifts exchanged proved that Mattel toys are better than Remco, as airplanes flew, cars whined, and dolls squealed. Several original seniors got the universal gift; yards of this inexpensive yet necessary item hung from the rafters. Other Senior Christmas parties may be bigger, but they'll never be better!

"Help — we're sinking!"

The audience shuffles . . . silence . . . a triumphant "Adeste Fideles." Thus begins another beautiful Vespers program, beautifully carried out by the Chorus.

"Another Opening, Another Show" — and our Chorus presents a tremendous "Spring Concert" with the precision of a Broadway show.

Ably directed by Mrs. Thelma Santee, the Chorus not only provides an outlet for the musically talented in the student body, but also causes the entire student body to further appreciate good music.

The Belsnickle family, composed of Paw, Maw, and daughters Ceelie, Bonnie Mae, Junie Lou, Four, Five, and Six face a dilemma. Junie Lou is being courted by Homer Upschlager, but can't marry until the oldest, Ceelie, gets married. Maw tells Paw he has to find a husband for Ceelie. Unfortunately, Ceelie is without one bath, unkempt, generally homely, and is not very popular with the boys. Paw almost gets one, named Chiz, but he gets away. At the same time Bonnie Mae, a pretty, intelligent girl, is dissatisfied with her ignorant, ill-mannered home. Now the plot thickens, unnecessarily, by the arrival of Ronald Maxwell and his aunt Lucy. Stranded by a car breakdown, they search for aid. One look at Ronald and Ceelie know who she wants. Bonnie Mae also longs for this handsome medical student. Paw goes all out to marry off Ceelie, even to giving her a bath and clean clothes. Ronald doesn't notice, for Bonnie has caught his eye. Now comes Obeey Upschlager, the one boy attracted to Ceelie. Jealous of Ronald, he sets out to get rid of him by starting a feud. This is unsuccessful, though it provides plenty of excitement for the play. By now Paw is fed up and decides to take direct action. Calling a preacher, he tricks Ronald into being at Ceelie's wedding as guest of honor. Using a shot gun, he persuades Ronald to be the groom. Ceelie and Ronald almost say the vows when Obeey breaks in and saves Ronald for Bonnie by marrying Ceelie himself. This, of course, provides the happy ending, shotgun and all.

"I'm gittin' married in the morning."

JUNIOR SPEAKING CONTEST

With the arrival of February 13th came the 38th annual Junior Speaking Contest. The eight contestants and their selections were as follows:

Barbara BenVenuti, "The Children of God;" Dolores Rudelitsch, "I Like Men;" Marlene Leiby, "Portrait of Jenny;" Brenda Shoemaker, "Mother of the Bride;" Leonard Ellis, "Woman, God Bless Her;" Daniel Butz, "How To Tell Good Guys From Bad Guys;" Peter McMurry, "Lincoln's Second Inaugural Address;" and William Frey, "The Battle of Germantown."

First places were taken by Barbara BenVenuti and Leonard Ellis. Dolores Rudelitsch and Daniel Butz were runners up.

Miss Elaine Miller, advisor to the contestants, helped the students to make this a successful evening. Also making major contributions to the success of the evening were talented classmates of the contestants. These individuals and groups, including the Junior Class Girls Ensemble, offered vocal and instrumental selections to make the program complete.

SCIENCE FAIR

The students file past the Lehigh Valley Science Fair Exhibits.

Each year our scientific-minded geniuses show their talents in the fields of biology, chemistry, physics, engineering, and physiography. Months of hard work, study, and research culminate in their projects. The best ones of the local Science Fair are then exhibited in the Lehigh Valley Science Fair at Muhlenberg College, Allentown.

ART EXHIBIT

Northampton sends a CARE package. (So we can't spell)

They were banned in Boston.

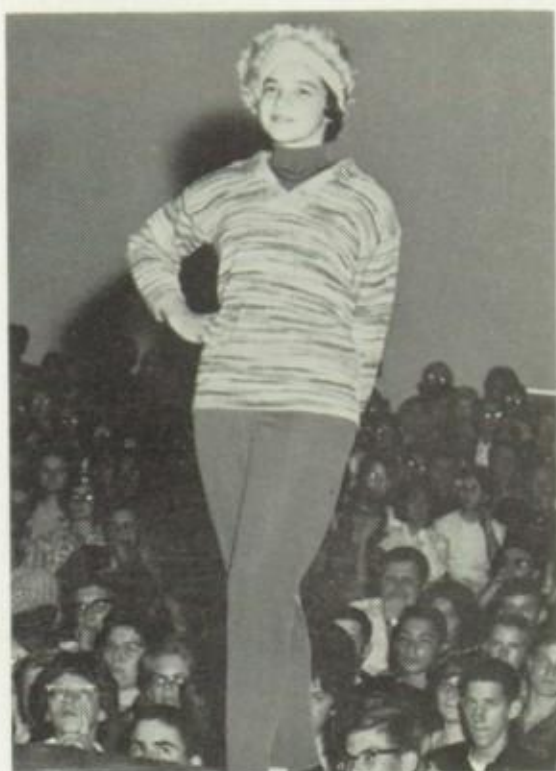

From the innocent scribblings characteristic of kindergarten to the skillful projects of senior high — these are all displayed at our annual Art Exhibit. During the exhibit, interesting demonstrations of the many processes and techniques we've learned during the year are presented. An added attraction is the fashion show of smart clothes sewn and modeled by our very own seamstresses. The exhibit is planned and conducted by the departments concerned — Mr. Melvin Kleppinger, arts and crafts; Mr. Henry Fujita and Mr. Alek Erdosy, wood and metal shops; Mr. Harry Reiff, mechanical drawing and printing.

Mr. Erdosy (center) admires his award.

"Al" leads his team into battle.

In rounding out another successful season, Al Erdosy also completed his 25th year as head coach of the Konkrete Kids. Under his guidance, several players performed exceptionally well and received citations and commendations from area sports writers. Mike Lisetski and his own son, John, dubbed the "Touchdown Twins," were among those cited.

The season started off on a dismal note when, in a hard-fought contest, we lost to Phillipsburg. Succeeding games were easily won until Lehigh-ton scored a surprise upset. This was unexpected by both the Kids and the Indians, since we have not lost to them in 33 years. However, our boys recovered quickly from the "shock" and went undefeated for the rest of the season. Of course, the annual loss was handed to Catasauqua on Thanksgiving Day.

The Class of '64 wishes to commend Mentor Erdosy on a job well done during his 25 years with the Konkrete Kids. Through his efforts, a great number of boys have learned the importance of physical fitness and fair play. We hope his successes and good work will continue in the future. Good luck, Mr. Erdosy!

With returning lettermen Mooney and Eickhoff, plus some up and coming Sophomores and Juniors, Coach Dotter skillfully directed his team through a not-too-disappointing season. Though this year's team was sadly lacking in both height and experience, the "Trotters" managed to come up with a 7-11 record.

Our boys lost their first game to Fountain Hill and their second to Bangor. The next four games were all straight wins; after this there seemed to be an even balance of both wins and losses.

The final game of the season was one not soon to be forgotten. In this exciting contest with Catasauqua, one of the finest exhibitions of basketball tactics was staged by the Rough Riders. The "Trotters" held back this District Championship team for the greater part of the game, but Catasauqua finally won out, 84-58.

GIRLS VARSITY BASKETBALL

With the never-say-die spirit of '36 — the last time NHS had a girls varsity basketball team until this year — our spunky "Konkretettes" fought their way through their first season with undaunted courage and boundless energy.

Hampered by lack of experience, the girls lost every game on the roster. As the season progressed though, a gradual but steady improvement was noted. Miss Kremus, head coach, expects better things next year.

WRESTLING

With a 7-0 record, Northampton wrestlers captured the new Lehigh Valley League's title in its first year of competition. Five returning lettermen — Dave Wall, Dan Laury, Greg Amore, Bob Henry, and John Sobiesiak — helped the team nail down a 13-1 season record. Dave Wall, our only undefeated wrestler, with 22 straight wins, defended his 120-lb. District XI title but lost a 6-5 decision in the Regionals. It was the first time in eight years that we defeated Hill School and it was a close 25-22. During the Sixth Annual Washington High School Christmas Tourney, our wrestlers won first place. Coach Harry Wall, assisted by Gordon Bartholomew and Al Hoffman, looks forward to his 20th season next year.

Chet Cinamella's excellent pitching and sluggers Mike Lisetski, John Erdosy, and Werner Greb set up the double play that drove our baseball team through a successful season.

The boys won 23 straight games, until they were upset, 2-1, by Stroudsburg. Undaunted, they came back to again pick up their winning streak. Coach Mike Lisetski anticipates another successful season next year.

Eickhoff beats it to first base.

Its only a foul tip . . . this time.

Cinamella is set for another pitch.

Our new coach, Paul Kranick, has had to face many difficulties with his trackmen. Bad weather and lack of experience were handicaps the boys were unable to overcome.

The team has a 3-8 record thus far. Lee Spanitz, Tom Lahovski, Mike Madea, and Bob Nyce have been doing their best, and regardless of the discouraging conditions, spirit is higher than ever among the boys.

We anticipate better things next year and know that Coach Kranick will be doing his best to improve the team.

When a fellow's breath comes in short pants.

When to be nonchalant!

Some people have their off days.

What's the rush?

Tootsies up!

Blurred? . . . It's your imagination.

I bet there won't be any water down there, either.

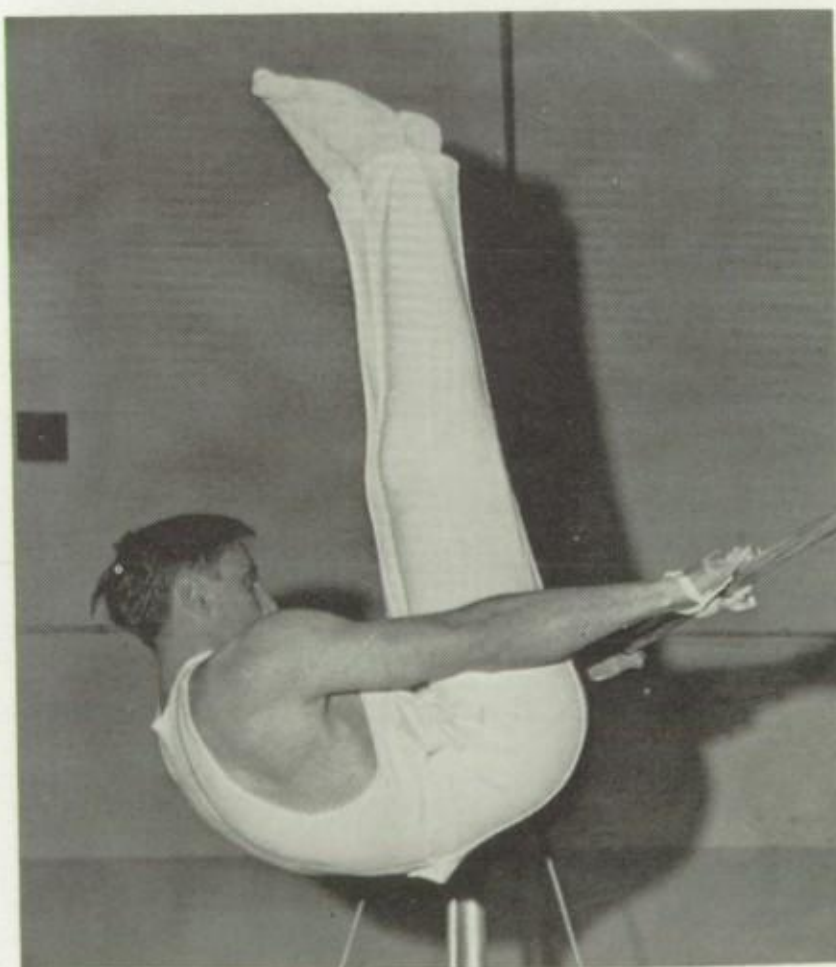

If I ever get off here!

Typing classes have changed since this picture was taken.

THE FACES —

you see on this page are only a few of the hundreds that fill the recesses of our minds. Unfortunately, the page is only an infinitesimal fraction of what's in our mental treasure chest — a tiny fragment of the jam-packed gallery of reverie where YOU occupy such an important position. We'll always remember.

WE'LL ALWAYS REMEMBER

THE TEACHERS —

tests, clowning, and cramming . . . how can we ever forget them? Since our first days as "high schoolers," there has been a myriad of enriching experiences bequeathed to us by so many friendly and sincere faces . . . faces that "we'll always remember."

In this picture, can you spot some Seniors of '64?

LIKE FATHER,
LIKE SON —

is a term so abused it often becomes a meaningless cliché. But, when you have stellar athletes who went on to become teachers and coaches — and Dads — and whose sons, all Senior classmates, are standing tall in their fathers' footsteps, you have the near-miracle that is one of our timeless treasures.

TIMELESS TREASURES

— In Memoriam —

ROBERT F. STUBER

May 22, 1907 — March 16, 1964

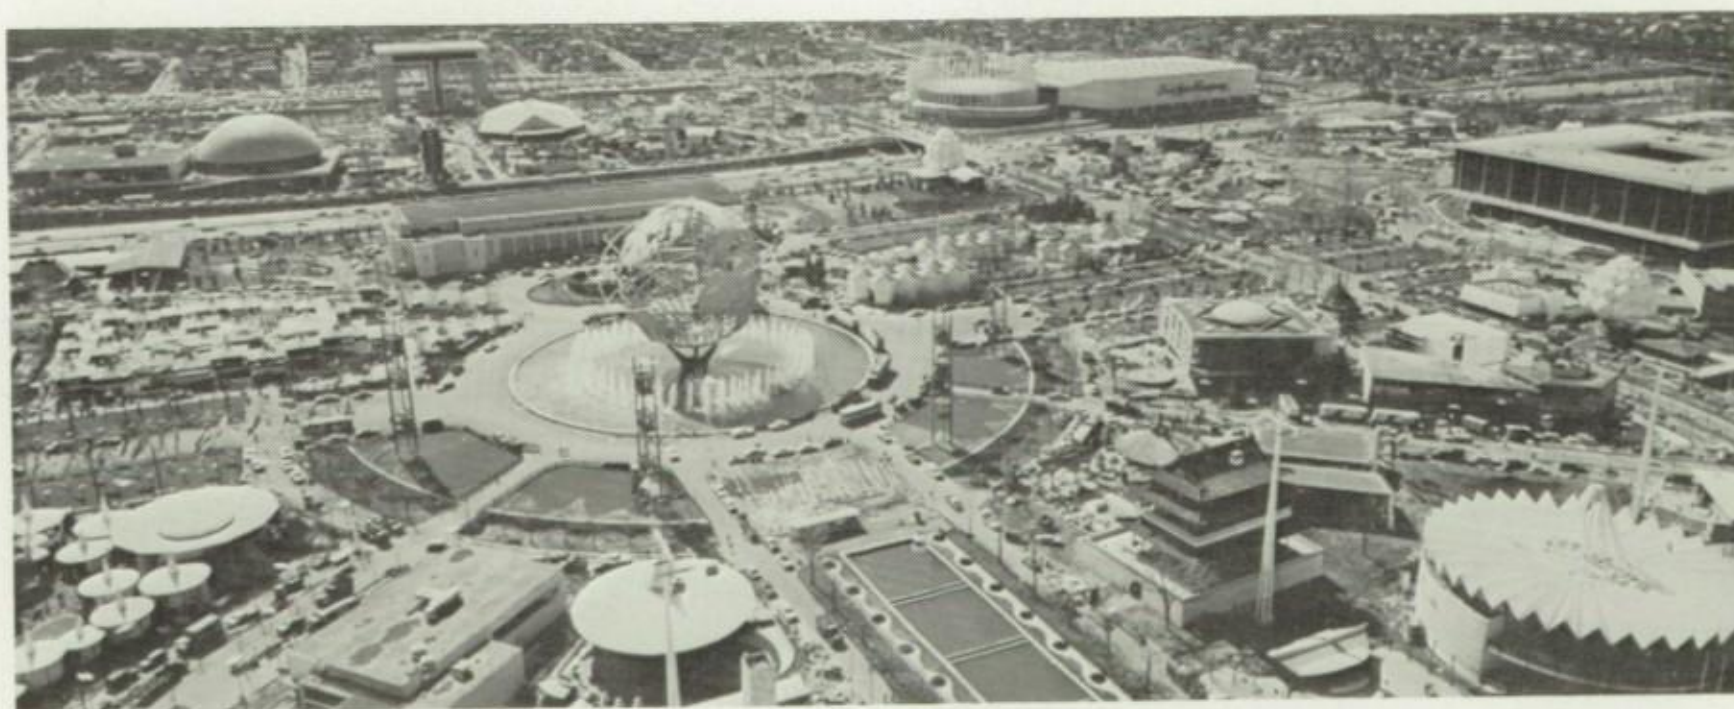

Mr. Stuber was truly someone special whom we, the Class of '64, shall never forget. If we lost a book, misplaced a sweater, or spilled some ink, he would lend a hand — willingly, gladly. Always there, always ready, he loyally and efficiently served both the faculty, the students, and the school. Nothing was ever too much trouble for "Stubie," as everyone affectionately called him. Even when he felt ill, as he did much too often, he would go out of his way to do innumerable things above and beyond the innumerable jobs he already had to do. Work was a way of life for "Stubie," and in the 12 years he was with us he did mountains of it. We miss him very much.

SENIOR CLASS TRIP

The Seniors are rushing to Flushing Meadow.

Taking advantage of what promised to be an unforgettable opportunity, the Class of '64 decided to take its Senior Trip to the World's Fair in New York. Months were spent in planning and preparation, not to mention anticipation. Finally the day came — on June 5.

It's amazing what you can do with a "tinker toy."

NEW YORK WORLD'S FAIR

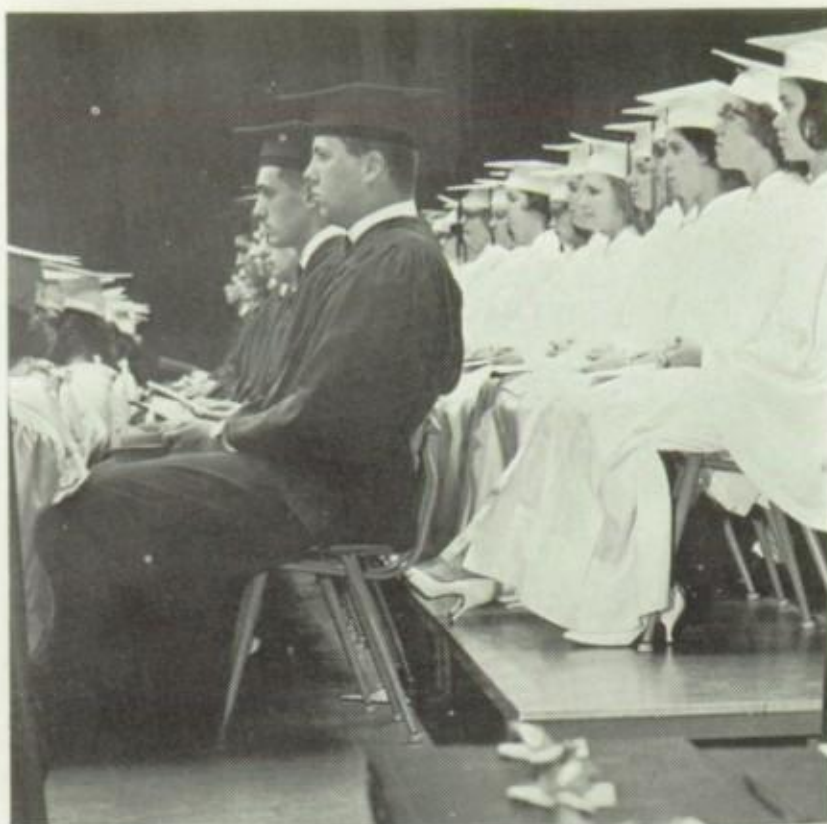

The Unisphere, symbol of the fair, dominated over all, as we, the Seniors, spent a never-to-be-forgotten "Friday at the Fair."

No, this didn't happen at the World's Fair. Just before our trip there, though, Marianne Puchyr, Amptennian editor-in-chief, was selected Girl of the Month for June. That's why you didn't see her on the photograph with the other selectees. The Fair was a coincidence that gave her the opportunity to celebrate, and celebrate she did. It was a real surprise; her selection — and so is this insertion.

GIRL OF THE MONTH

Outgoing Seniors of '63 experience mixed emotions while listening to commencement speech.

COMMENCEMENT

Clark Kuntz receives certificate for his perfect attendance since first grade.

At last the long-awaited hour has arrived. But somehow, after all the years of anticipation, we just aren't as deliriously happy as we had expected to be. Discovering ourselves on the threshold of the unknown, we want desperately to return to that sheltered life which is now lost forever.

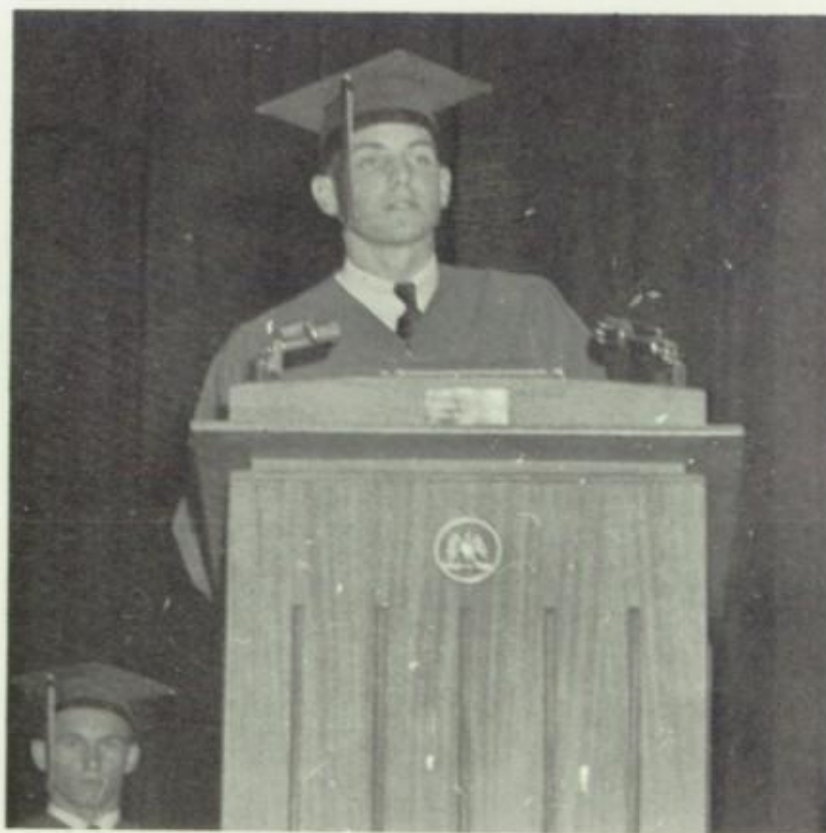

We must leave now and each seek a new horizon. For some of us this is college; for others, an occupation; but for all, it is a new, exciting, and incomparable adventure.

Here we stand then, eyes glistening — some with the dew of tears, some with the light of anticipation — waiting for the act which will end our high school careers forever. Even the facetious are silent. This is the day; this is the hour; this is Commencement.

Leslye Ruth delivers her speech, World of Youth, at Commencement exercises.

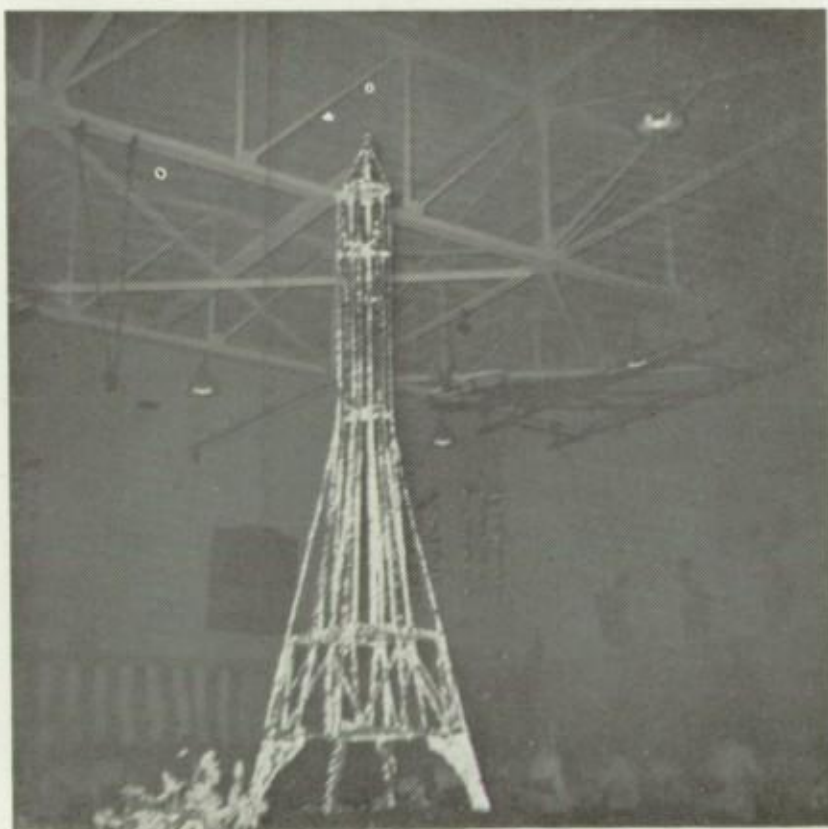

Charles Baker's speech, Use of Freedom, captivates the audience.

SENIOR PROM

Suddenly it was the end of May; with it arrived the Senior Prom, presaging too the end of high school days for the upper-classmen. The night was beautiful, so was the gym, and so was the music. The Student Council, headed by President Robert Oplinger, outdid itself to provide an authentic Parisian setting for "Le Bal D'Adieu," even to a replica of the Eiffel Tower. Paul Henry and his orchestra expressed the mood perfectly. The dancers expressed the many faces of Paris through diversity of attire and demeanor. It was magnifique, as were David Christoff and Nancy Waldman, the King and Queen. All too soon came the stroke of twelve, the music died out, and an unforgettable dance became an unforgettable memory. For the underclassmen, it was Au Revoir, but for Seniors, the word was Adieu.

Round a Continental garden we danced . . .

Even through the Streets of Paris.

LOOK AROUND

Look around, look around,
For these faces you see
Shall soon but a pleasant memory be;
Our carefree days of childhood are through,
And a restless world asks us what to do.

Look around, look around,
For in these faces you'll see
The leaders of the twenty-first century;
The greatest of nations is at our command
Alone, we'll decide the fate of our land.

Look around, look around,
Look ever on till you see
The faces of those less fortunate than we;
For till freedom's flag is forever unfurled
We cannot build a better world.

—Cynthia Zaharchuk
